

Product Offering Declination

I understand Employment Practice Liability Insurance is an important coverage. I also understand, that our company will incur payment of legal fees and settlements regarding these types of claims if coverage is not purchased.

My insurance representative has offered this coverage to our company and we have elected not to purchase this coverage at this time. If we however reverse our decision, we will notify our insurance representative immediately to obtain this coverage.

Company representative

Date