A Resident's Malpractice Policy That Follows You Everywhere!

In these uncertain times, you can be called on to practice professional podiatric physician services in almost any location. The malpractice threat is real, and unfortunately you can be named in a lawsuit. Keep in mind that a medical facility residency doesn't necessarily guarantee you malpractice protection. The facility may choose not to defend you for any number of reasons. Imagine being sued for malpractice...without adequate funds to defend yourself or pay settlement costs. One year—$1,200 low cost.

New Practitioner

- The same, innovative follow-you-anywhere malpractice policy which protects your assets, your reputation and your career
- Savings when you need them the most, up to 75% premium discount the first year of full-time practice after residency, 50% premium discount the second year and 25% premium discount your third year of full-time practice
- Convenient, quarterly premium financing, lets you pay for your insurance as you use it at competitive interest rates
