Firearm Liability Claim Filing Process:

You can report a claim or ask a coverage question on the 24 hour Program Hot Line at 888-748-6227. The hotline will be answered by a live person. If all representatives are busy, please leave a voicemail and you will receive a return call.

You will need to provide your Policy Number when you call. The policy number is located on Firearm Liability ID Card that was part of the policy documents. It is suggested that you can keep in your wallet so you have all the necessary information to report a claim immediately after an incident or to ask a coverage question.

ROCKWOOD PROGRAM'S CLAIM ADMINISTRATOR:

WILSON, ELSER, MOSKOWITZ, EDELMAN & DICKER LLP

UNDERSTANDING THE FIREARM LIABILITY DEFENSE TEAM'S FUNCTION:

- Our Panel of Defense Counsel includes attorneys throughout the country
- Chief Panel Counsel (Wilson, Elser, Moskowitz, Edelman & Dicker LLP) will provide an initial consultation designed to discuss the background of the incident, identify your potential for exposure and assist you in understanding your legal defense options.
- Chief Panel Counsel will arrange for the handling of all civil proceedings.
- Chief Panel Counsel will handle the reimbursement process for criminal expense reimbursement, psychological support sessions (if applicable) and compensation while in court (if applicable).

For Criminal Matters:

- Chief Panel Counsel will assign a defense attorney located in the insured's region. If insured prefers to obtain his/her own criminal attorney, Chief Panel Counsel will review attorney's credentials and advise as to whether their choice of attorney is approved or disapproved. Any outside counsel will have to follow Chief Panel's recommended rates and terms of retention for the insured to be eligible for reimbursement.
- The insurer, through the Chief Panel Counsel will advance funds (bail bond and attorney retainer) to defense attorney representing insured.
